

.06"7.&

Epic recording artist, Morgan James is not just a great soul singer...or a great R&B artist, or even a great jazz artist. The classically trained vocalist is malleable enough to encompass several genres, while displaying vocals reminiscent of Motown-era greats, all while making her mark on Broadway. At home on the classical, concert and rock stages Morgan James is one of the country's most sought-after singers. She is a versatile vocalist, easily maneuvering between genres. As a solo artist, she has played to sold-out crowds at popular NY nightspots such as Birdland, Dizzy's Club Coca-Cola at Lincoln Center, Dominion, Joe's Pub, Le Poisson Rouge, and Rockwood Music Hall. Her debut solo album "Morgan James Live" is available on iTunes and Amazon, featuring the music of Nina Simone, and her full-length studio album will be available summer 2014 (both on Epic Records).

Morgan's Broadway credits include four original casts: Motown: the musical, the Broadway revival of Godspell, Frank Wildhorn's Wonderland and The Addams Family, starring Nathan Lane and Bebe Neuwirth. Regional theatre credits include leading roles at Barrington Stage Company, Paper Mill Playhouse, The O'Neill Theatre Center, and Arizona Theatre Company. Morgan was a featured soloist in Bernstein's Mass with the Baltimore Symphony Orchestra (conducted by Marin Alsop) at Carnegie Hall and the Kennedy Center, as well as appearances with the Detroit, San Diego, National, Utah, Youngstown and Modesto Symphony orchestras.

A veteran of commercials and voice-overs, in addition to her extensive theatre and concert career, she has participated in numerous workshops and readings of new theatre works. Her discography includes the Broadway cast recordings of Motown, Godspell, Wonderland, The Addams Family, the concept albums of The Little Princess and Tears from Heaven, and is featured on several composer and artist albums.

Morgan is a graduate of The Juilliard School in New York City where she received her BM in Voice, and is a proud member of AEA, AFTRA, and SAG.