

STEVE REISTETER BIOGRAPHY

Bass clarinet/Saxophone

Steve Reisteter is a woodwind player, composer and arranger. A native of Bethlehem, PA, he is a member of the Allentown Band, the Allentown Symphony, the Hanover Woodwind Quintet and is the former music director/conductor of the Civic Theatre of Allentown. Steve's published compositions and arrangements have been played worldwide by such ensembles as the Philadelphia Orchestra, the Danish Concert Band, the US Army Field Band and the Michigan Philharmonic Orchestra. As a pop musician he has played for such artists as Ella Fitzgerald, Bob Hope, Aretha Franklin, The Four Tops, The Temptations, Bernadette Peters, Johnny Mathis and for the national tours of "Grease" and "Chicago." Steve was an elementary general music teacher in the Whitehall-Coplay School District and now teaches at Moravian College and Lehigh University.