

Yeseul Ann

Violin I

Yeseul Ann, a first violinist for the Allentown Symphony Orchestra, is one of the ASO musicians in need of a chair sponsor. Born in Seoul, South Korea, and currently living in Penn Valley, PA, she has been with the Allentown Symphony Orchestra for eight years. Yeseul is part of three other performing ensembles and plays an Alfredo Contino violin from 1928.

During her time in the Allentown Symphony Orchestra, Yeseul's favorite concert has been Beethoven's Symphony No. 9, though she also enjoys playing Brahms's Trios and music by Bach, Debussy, Franck, and Piazzolla. Outside of the Allentown Symphony and her job as a music instructor, Yeseul enjoys relaxing by doing yoga.
