

ROB FOURNIER BIOGRAPHY

Rob Fournier has been a performer in the Tri-State area for over 20 years. He has performed on Trombone, Tuba, and Euphonium in over 30 different Broadway productions in New York City and has performed at some of New York's most prestigious venues such as The Met and New York City Opera. At the most recent revival of the Tony Award winning show "Anything Goes", Rob served as the Bass Trombonist and as an Assistant Conductor. Currently, Rob performs as the Bass Trombonist in the Allentown Symphony Orchestra (PA), and Principal Baritone of the Gramercy Brass Orchestra